EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

Por Favor volte para explicación en español o hable al 214-631-0910

General Residence Homestead Exemption: To qualify for this exemption, you must own and reside in your home on the date you request the exemption. You may receive only one homestead exemption in a tax year. Applications cannot be filed before the date you qualify for the exemption. You may apply online at www.dallascad.org.

Age 65 or Older: To qualify for an Age 65 or Older exemption, you must be at least age 65. This exemption includes a school tax limitation or ceiling. You may receive the Age 65 or Older exemption immediately upon qualification of the exemption.

Disabled Person Exemption: You may receive the Disabled Person exemption immediately upon qualification of the exemption. To qualify, you must meet the Social Security definition for disability under the Federal-Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance Program administered by the Social Security Administration. Disability benefits from any other program do not automatically qualify you. To verify your eligibility, you must provide a current dated statement from the Social Security Administration showing that you are disabled and the date your disability began.

Tax Limitations: The Age 65 or Older or Disabled Person exemption for school taxes includes a school tax limitation or ceiling. Other types of taxing units (county, city, or special district) have the option to grant a tax limitation on homesteads of homeowners disabled or 65 years of age or older. You may transfer the same percentage of school taxes paid to another qualified homestead in the state. If the county, city or special district grants the limitation, you may transfer the same percentage of taxes paid to another qualified homestead within that same taxing unit. You may not receive both the Age 65 or Older and Disabled Person exemption from the same taxing unit in the same tax year, Tax Code 11.13(h). However, you may receive both exemptions from different taxing units.

Age 55 or Older Surviving Spouse of individual who qualified for Age 65 or Older Exemption or Disabled Person Exemption: You qualify for an extension of the exemption if you were 55 years of age or older on the date your spouse died and your deceased spouse was receiving the Age 65 or Older exemption on this residence homestead or would have qualified for the exemption in the year of the spouse's death. You are entitled to the tax limitation if you were 55 years of age or older when your spouse, who was receiving the Disabled Person exemption, died and the residence homestead was the residence homestead of the surviving spouse on the date the individual died and remains the residence homestead of the surviving spouse.

100% Disabled Veteran or Surviving Spouse of Disabled Veteran who qualified or would have qualified for the 100% Disabled Veteran's Exemption: You may qualify for this exemption if you are a disabled veteran who receives from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its successor: 1) 100% disability compensation due to service-connected disability; and 2) a rating of 100% disabled or individual unemployability; or if you are a surviving spouse of a disabled veteran who qualified or would have qualified for the 100% Disabled Veteran exemption at the time of death and 1) you have not remarried since the death of the disabled veteran and 2) the property was your residence homestead when the disabled veteran died and remains your residence homestead. You may receive the exemption for the applicable portion of that tax year immediately on qualification for the exemption. Tax Code §11.131. Applicants must provide a current copy of their V.A. award letter.

Required Documents: Attach a copy of your TX driver's license or TX ID card. You may be exempt from the driver's license/ID requirement if you reside in a facility that provides services for health, infirmity, or aging; or a certified participant of the ACP for victims of family violence, sexual assault, or stalking (proof required). The address listed on your driver's license/ID card must match your homestead property address. This address requirement may be waived if you hold a driver's license under Transportation Code §521.121(c) or §521.1211 (proof required). For manufactured homes, you must also include a copy of the statement of ownership and location issued by the TX Department of Housing and Community Affairs and a copy of the purchase contract or payment receipt showing you are the owner. If after making a good faith effort, you are unable to establish ownership as stated above, complete the sworn affidavit included with the application.

Mailing Address: You may choose a different mailing address from the property address (explanation required); however, the address on your driver's license or ID card must match the homestead property address.

Ownership Status: Each individual owner, excluding married couples, residing on the property must complete a separate application to qualify for an exemption for his or her interest in the property. For property owned through a beneficial interest in a qualifying trust, attach a copy of the document creating the trust. For Heir property, attach Affidavit for Heir Property (located with application affidavits), copy of Death Certificate, recent utility bill, and Court citation, if available.

Signature Required: Your signature on the application constitutes a sworn statement that you have read and understand the Penalty for a False Statement, you are qualified for the exemption(s) checked, the facts in the application are true and correct, and that you do not claim a residence homestead exemption on another residence homestead in Texas or in another state.

Penalty for False Statement: If you make a false statement on the application, you could be found guilty of a Class A misdemeanor or a state jail felony under Penal Code §37.10. The Tax Code imposes a penalty of 50 percent for delinquent taxes if a property received an erroneously granted homestead exemption.

Application Deadlines/Late File: For the homestead exemption, you must file the completed application with all required documentation between January 1 and April 30 of the tax year for which you are claiming the exemption. You may file a late application for a residence homestead exemption, no later than two years after the tax delinquency date, Tax Code §11.431; five years after the delinquency date for Disabled Veteran Exemption and a 100% disabled veteran homestead exemption, §11.439.

Additional Information Request: After considering the application and all relevant information, the chief appraiser may request additional information. You must provide the additional information within 30 days of the request or the application is denied. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for furnishing the additional information by written order for a single period not to exceed 15 days, Tax Code §11.45.

When New Application Required: If the chief appraiser grants your exemption(s), you do not need to reapply annually. A 65 or Older exemption will be automatically applied according to the Date of Birth/s provided on the Homestead application. However, by written notice accompanied by the appropriate application, you may be required to file a new application to confirm your current qualifications for the exemption(s). If you want the exemption(s) to apply to property not listed on this application, you must file a new application, Tax Code §11.43 (c).

Duty to Notify: You have a duty to notify the chief appraiser in writing when your entitlement to any exemption ends.
